

Privacy Policy

Introduction

Uschi Heyd trading as Kind Living is committed to protecting her customers' personal information. This Privacy Policy sets out how Kind Living collects, uses and protects your information that you choose to provide on the website: www.kindliving.co.nz.

If you do not wish to provide personal information to us, then you do not have to do so. However, this may affect your ability to book sessions with Uschi and subscribe to the Kind Living newsletters.

If we decide to change our privacy policy, we will post those changes on this page.

This policy was last modified on March, 2022.

Your Personal Information

When you sign up to our newsletter, enquire about our services, book a free Discovery Call or become a client of Uschi Heyd, you may be asked to provide your: name, e-mail address, mailing address, phone number or date of birth.

The email address you provide may be used to send you information pertaining to your interests and updates on Uschi Heyd's service information and related products.

Note: If at any time you would like to unsubscribe from receiving future emails, we include detailed unsubscribe instructions at the bottom of each email.

Emails or newsletters that we send electronically may use techniques such as web beacons or pixel tags to gather email metrics and information to improve the reader's experience, such as the number of emails that are opened, whether they were forwarded or printed, the type of device from which they were opened, and the location (e.g. city, state, and country) associated with the applicable IP address.

We promise to never trade, sell, or otherwise transfer your personally identifiable information to third parties, unless they are instrumental in operating our website, conducting our business, or servicing you. However, we require those parties to agree to keep this information confidential. We may release your information if required to do so in order to comply with New Zealand law, enforce our site policies, or protect our or others' rights, property, or safety.

All information collected from you is stored in a technically and physically secure environment. We use SSL encryption to protect sensitive information online, and we do all we can to protect user information offline. Unfortunately, no transmission over the Internet can be guaranteed to be 100% secure. As a result, while we take reasonable measures to protect your information, we cannot ensure or warrant the security of the information that you transmit to us, and you do so at your own risk.
